The Human Person Images the Trinity

Franciscan Catechetical Institute

We often wonder at the ocean, the mountains, a beautiful sunset; but do we wonder with awe at ourselves and at each person around us? What is one time this past week that you have recognized the beauty of the human person?

Does the Catechism use any analogies from nature (shamrock, the sun) to describe the Trinity? Why or why not?

What is the best image of the Trinity?

DISCUSSION: The Catechism says “the divine image is present in every man. It shines forth in the communion of persons, in the likeness of the union of the divine persons among themselves” (1702). What does this tell us about the Trinity?
